THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
WILLIAM JAMES HIGH SCHOOL
STATESBORO, GEORGIA

Presents

THE JAMESONIAN
1955-56

VOLUME I

BOOK IV

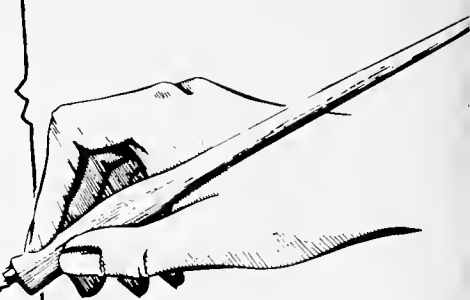

Foreword

Just as a mirror reflects our image, so will this yearbook reflect the memories of school days. In these few pages we have tried to capture some parts of the work, the play, the seriousness and the gaiety which have made our school days a magic time.

To our beloved teachers we say, "Thanks" for your patience and gracious attitude toward us.

We hope that as you turn through the pages of the Jamsonian in years to come, it will bring joy of reminiscence to all who remember the Class of 1956.

Dedication

Miss Annie A. Williams
A. B. Morris Brown
M. A. New York U.

We, the senior class of 1955-56, wish to dedicate this book, the "Jamsonian", to our sponsor and advisor, Miss Annie A. Williams. She, who has with such patience and unselfishness guided our footsteps in the right paths. We dedicate this book as a token of our sincere gratitude for her untiring efforts; her constant devotion to our every need.

When we were in need of advice concerning school work, or personal problems, she was always ready to lend a helping hand. She has helped us to overcome many difficulties. To us, she will always be dear. We feel honored to dedicate this book, "The Jamsonian", to her.

To The Senior Class

You are to be commended on your effort to give the William James Family a portrait of many treasured events of the year. As the years pass, it will enable each of us to relive our treasured experiences we have had with others long after these events have become a part of history.

With a publication of this kind, you have made it possible to renew our acquaintance with old friends, at will, by merely turning pages of past pleasure. Without such a vivid portrait, reflections of activities of actual life at William James High would be lost to Father Time.

I hope that the presentation of this edition will serve as an inspiration and encourage you to strive for self confidence and security in your attempt for social, moral, intellectual, and physical maturity as you gain insight, every increasingly, into the emotional forces motivating human behavior.

There's a school we love so dearly,
Ever praise its name;
For her thoughts of love and courage,
Is our William James.

Refrain:

Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
May it e'er be bold;
Onward, upward with thy banner,
Of the purple and gold.

II

Many are the days we've pondered,
Always just the same,
Reminiscence of thy honor,
Dear Old William James.

III

Immortal in our memories,
Shall our days remain;
We thy loyal sons and daughters,
Ne'er thy name defame.
